HKIB The Hong Kong
Institute of Bankers
香港銀行學會

Overview

In a multigenerational workforce, particularly within the banking and financial sectors, people who can leverage the strengths of different generations are crucial for enhancing productivity and achieving overall success for the organisation. This seminar will enable participants to understand how to build on strengths based on research and appreciate the reasons for generational differences while dispelling stereotypes. By embracing the richness of generational diversity, participants will also be better equipped to inspire, motivate, and manage teams that drive success in the financial world.

Agenda

- Learn how to capitalise on the unique capabilities of a multigenerational workforce to enhance productivity and innovation in the banking sector
- Foster an appreciation for the reasons behind generational differences, promoting a culture of inclusivity and respect
- Uncover why understanding generational dynamics is critical for effective leadership in the banking industry's diverse business environment
- Develop communication strategies that resonate with a multigenerational team, ensuring clear and impactful messaging in financial contexts
- Explore ways to create a cohesive and motivated workforce that leverages the collective wisdom of different generations

Who Should Attend?

- All banking practitioners, especially team leaders, executives and HR specialists
